The I'm So Frustrated, I Can Hardly Stand It Writing Challenge

1. For this first challenge, you will be writing a Pilish Story. For this story, you need to write a twenty-word story where the number of letters in the first word matches the first number in Pi, the number of letters in the second word matches the second number in Pi, etc. Here are the first twenty numbers in Pi:

3.1415926535897932846

2. For this second challenge, you will be writing a Reverse Lipogram Story. For this story, you will need to write a twenty-word story where each word has to contain the letter M.

3. For this third challenge, you will be writing a Univocalic Story. For this story, you need to write a twenty-word story where each word only has one vowel.